

A sepia-toned landscape photograph featuring a calm lake or river. The scene is misty, with soft, hazy light filtering through the air. In the foreground, there are tall, thin reeds or grasses. The middle ground shows a wide expanse of water reflecting the light. The background is dominated by dense, dark evergreen trees, their forms softened by the mist. The overall mood is serene and quiet.

“A SOLITARY WALK IN THE COUNTRYSIDE IS THE PERFECT WAY TO ALLOW YOUR THOUGHTS TO SETTLE AND ONCE THAT HAS HAPPENED YOU JUST NEED TO FIND THE RIGHT STOPPING POINT. SOMETHING – A DISTANT STEEPLE, A FIGURE IN THE MIST, A PARTICULARLY BEAUTIFUL TREE – WILL ALWAYS HALT ME IN MY TRACKS AND THE NEXT COMPOSITION WILL BEGIN TO TAKE SHAPE IN MY MIND.”
